MODERN MOTHER GOOZE
(revamped to fit wartime conditions)

My buddy lies over his A book, My brother lies over his C; My neighbors lie over their canned goods
And they're making a liar of me!
Rubadub-dub . . . We're all in the same tub . . .
Stripped of our wages and shorn of our grub!
Fooley, fooley, little car, What a lot of help YOU are There in that garage alone With your gas tank dry as bone!

HEY! YA KNOW WAT?

One Negro was worrying about the chance of his being drafted for the army. The other consoled him. "There is two things that can happen, boy. You is either drafted or you ain't drafted. If you ain't, you can forget it; and if you is, you still got two chances.
You may be sent to the front and go to the front, you still got two chances, you may get shot and you may not. If you get shot, you still got two chances, you may die and you may not. And even if you die, you still has two chances."

is a student at Illinois university at Champaign, was recently
