

JUNE 30

Map showing the importance of the battle of Biak, being fought off the coast of New Guinea, and stubbornly contested by the Japanese. The three airfields now held by the Japs, once in the hands of Gen. MacArthur will place the Allies within 900 bombing miles of the Philippines. Insert shows the Allied beachhead in the Bosnek perimeter, and Mokmer airfield, most important of the three on Biak. (War map by Jerry Chong, Advertiser Staff Artist).

Hey! How ABOUT LETTING ME KNOW
A LITTLE ABOUT WHAT YOU DID, WHERE YOU WERE, WHAT YOU'D SEEN? Or IS IT STILL "MILITARY SECRET?" CAN'T YOU TELL US ANYTHING?

Boy! WE'RE SURE KEEPING OUR EYES ON BOTH FRONTS . . . EUROPEAN AND PACIFIC.

THE 442nd IS UP WITH THE

New U. S. Threat To Japan Holdings

100th. Plenty of happy reunions,
 brothers, buddies, home-town pals,
 school-mates. Plenty of sorrow too, no doubt learning some have gone on, never to return.

The 33rd Inf. Reg. Group in Alabama and the 232nd in Blandon,
 Florida will be ready to push out soon.

Rooting always, Harry
