Dear Yuri,

Enclosed is a draft letter that I've prepared to send out for a prisoners' mailing for UNITY. As we discussed when I saw you in New York last month, I'm sending it to you for your O.K., since it mentions your name.

We hope to do the mailing as soon as possible, because we want to send out the current issue of the paper which includes a feature page of prisoner's correspondence. I know that you're very busy, but if you could put together that list and forward it to us, and let us know if the letter is O.K., we'd really appreciate it.

Also enclosed is a copy of a letter and appeal we got from a brother, Kenneth Armstead, who is imprisoned at Stormville, N.Y. He is trying to get Executive Clemency, and wrote to UNITY for support. You may have already heard about his case, but I'm sending you a copy of the flyer anyway. We'll be writing about it in an upcoming issue of the paper too.

It was good to see you again. We've been real busy not only getting the paper out, but also working on the Tupelo tour which starts next week in California. We're also working on mobilizing for demonstrations in support of Kampuchea this week. We were outraged at the Soviet-backed Vietnamese invasion. The Vietnamese people have such a glorious history of fighting foreign aggression and we do not believe that they would support the Vietnamese authorities' blatant invasion of another sovereign country!

Please give my regards to Eddie and Bill, and the rest of the family. Alex also sends his regards. We'll send a snapshot of the baby soon.

In unity,

Mae
