

GOOD-WILL AMBASSADORS HIROSHIMA - NAGASAKI WORLD PEACE STUDY MISSION

A group of twenty-six survivors of the atom bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki from all walks of life
 on a world tour
 to share with the people of many nations their knowledge of the atomic bomb and its aftermath and to exchange ideas and information in an effort to help the world find ways to achieve disarmament and abolish war.

ORGANIZATIONS COOPERATING WITH THE WORLD PEACE STUDY MISSION

The following organizations are co-operating in various ways, on a national and/or local level, with the World Peace Study Mission.

They each devote part or all of their organizational program to work for international understanding, disarmament or world peace.

Their listing here does not mean that they necessarily agree with or endorse the total program and aims of the World Peace Study Mission, but rather that they have co-operated in bringing the delegates of the Mission together with a cross-section of people in the United States for discussion and for consideration of the vital issues of present day world affairs.
