

GOOD-WILL AMBASSADORS HIROSHIMA-NAGASAKI WORLD PEACE STUDY MISSION

HONORARY CO-CHAIRMEN

The Hon. Shinzo Hamai
Mayor of Hiroshima

The Hon. Tsutomu Tagawa
Mayor of Nagasaki

P. O. BOX 100
CENTRAL POST OFFICE
HIROSHIMA, JAPAN
325 LAFAYETTE STREET, 2ND FLOOR
NEW YORK, N. Y. 10012
Walker 5-1386

The following list describes the literature and films still available through the World Peace Study Mission. Please donate as much as you can when ordering free literature -- and be sure to include enough to cover postage.

1. "Goodwill Ambassadors" -- Photographic souvenir booklet of the World Peace Study Mission. A handsome and moving presentation of the events in Hiroshima and Nagasaki; and of the background and members of the Mission. Primarily composed of photographs and poems.

donation $1.00 or more

2. Friends of the Hibakusha. Edited by Virginia Naeve (Swallow, Denver: 1964) -- This full length book is a compilation of letters, documents, writings, studies and poems concerning the scientific, sociological, medical, spiritual and psychological effects of the bombings. It contains full and fascinating reports on the 1962 Hiroshima Peace Pilgrimage, on the Rome-Geneva Peace Pilgrimage, the Hiroshima Maidens and the Japanese Peace Movement. An invaluable compendium for all who are concerned about the bombings and their significance.

Paperback $2.00
Hard cover $4.75

3. Actual Facts of the A-Bomb Disaster -- a booklet covering the physical effects of the atomic bomb, written, researched and compiled by Dr. Naomi Shohno, nuclear physicist and delegate of the World Peace Study Mission; plus a section on the "Atomic Bomb Injury and Effects" by Drs. Yukio Fujimoto and Fukashi Nakamura, physicians and delegates of the Mission. The information presented in this booklet represents the accumulated knowledge of the effect of the bomb by men working directly in the living laboratories of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. There are no comparable reports in terms of first hand knowledge and closeness to the subject matter. (A third section on the feelings and living conditions of the survivors, by Hiromu Morishita and Ryuji Hamai, poet and writer respectively, and delegates of the World Peace Study Mission, is now being translated and will be available shortly.)

Cost: Booklet $1.00
third section, (available soon) 50¢

4. The Delegates of the World Peace Study Mission. Biographies and Pictures

donation $1.00

5. Are We All Hibakusha? A penetrating article by William Mathes, reprinted from Manas Magazine. An indispensable analysis of the psychological effects of the A-bomb on Americans.

Cost: 15¢

6. The Children's Book -- A photostatic reproduction of a touching book made by the children of Hiroshima. Handwritten both in Japanese and English translation, with pressed leaves, drawings, and decorative calligraphy. The appeals for peace of these children are earnest and poignant. A beautiful human document.

donation: $2.00

7. Hibakusha...the Explosion Affected People -- A pamphlet, illustrated with photographs, describing the lives of the survivors still suffering in Hiroshima; and the ways in which people in other lands can help them.

Cost: 15¢

8. The Hiroshima Hibakusha as an Anthropological Entity, by Earle L. Reynolds of the Hiroshima Institute of Peace Science. A preliminary anthropological paper and proposal for further study. A pioneer approach to the hibakusha as a unique ethnic group instantaneously created by the bombings.

donation: 75¢

( OVER )

9. Hiroshima, 1964 -- Reprinted from the Saturday Review. A comprehensive editorial by Norman Cousins, containing a report of Hiroshima today and on the World Peace Study Mission.

Cost: 15¢

10. Burning Conscience. The case of the Hiroshima pilot Claude Eatherly, told in his correspondence with Gunther Anders, German philosopher now living in Vienna. A fascinating and remarkable book. (Monthly Review Press, N.Y.: 1962)

Cost: $4.00

11. Change Over: Edited by Virginia Naeye. (Swallow, Denver: 1963). This book, complete with pictures, is a reflection of all aspects of the peace movement. Includes sections entitled: The Scientists; Economy and Survival; Psychological Aspects of War and Peace; Religion; and several others. Eminent contributors.

Cost 85¢

ALSO AVAILABLE

12. Leather Badges, oval, in a variety of colors, about 1" x 2" with "World Peace" (Se Kai He Wa) written in Japanese calligraphy. Made by the hibakusha.

donation: $1.00

13. Enamel lapel or blouse pins, about 1" x 3/4", oval, with metal legend: "World Peace" as above. Made by the hibakusha.

donation: $1.00

14. "No More Hiroshima" Posters -- Dimensions 30" x 22", featuring the folded crane which has become a symbol of peace, with beautifully lettered legend, "Repose ye in Peace-- for the Error shall never be Repeated" (wording from the cenotaph in the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Park).

donation: $2.00

FREE MATERIAL

1. World Peace Study Mission Folder -- describing the entire American portion of the tour with lists of delegates, sponsors and members of the WPSM Committee in Japan. With pictures, map and American schedules and itineraries.
2. "Children of the A-Bomb" -- a leaflet presenting with great emotional impact and simplicity the Hiroshima-Nagasaki plea for peace, as formulated by a Japanese child.
3. Photostats of newspaper clippings and photographs. Also, a collage page, combining numerous clippings.
4. Contribution envelopes, including a printed pledge to join the hibakusha in their work for peace.
5. Fact Sheet. -- four page leaflet presenting in brief the most striking and important medical information on the atomic disaster.

FILMS AVAILABLE

1. Children of the Ashes. (B.B.C., 16 mm., 34 min.) Written and directed by Robert Jungk. An objective, powerful and sobering documentary on Hiroshima today. The Atomic bomb effects on a boom-town of bars, tourists and war materials industry, where the survivors live in a ghetto of discrimination. An impressive and highly important film.

Rental, three days $10.00

2. A Thousand Cranes. (Produced by the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom). Written and directed by Betty Jean Lifton. The beautiful, touching and inspiring story of Sadako Sasai, a little leukemia victim of the bomb who tried to fold a thousand paper cranes - the traditional symbol of longevity; and of the Folded Crane Clubs founded by Ichiro and Tokie Kawamoto -- the children's club of Hiroshima which helps the survivors and works for peace.

Rental, three days $7.50

Purchase price - $60.00

3. Hiroshima Peace Pilgrimage. (20 min.) - An inspirational documentary of the 1962 journey of two young survivors, Miyoko Matsubara and Hiromasa Hanabusa (both delegates of the current World Peace Study Mission) from Hiroshima to Geneva, to appeal to the governments of the world for a ban on nuclear testing.

Rental, three days - $7.50