As President of the Washington, D.C. Chapter, I cordially welcome you to this Benefit Reception on the eve of the first hearing before the Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians. The JACL takes this occasion to express our sincere appreciation to Senators Inouye, Matsunaga, and Hayakawa and Congressmen Mineta and Matsui, for their role in bringing about legislation that established this Commission.

We wish to extend a warm welcome to the nine members of the Commission and also to our National JACL Officers. This is truly a significant and historical occasion for those of us who suffered internment during World War II and who now seek Redress.
