

50 YEARS: REFLECTION and RENEWAL

Courtesy of artist Miné Okubo from her book, CITIZEN 13660

... To commemorate EXECUTIVE ORDER 9066, which authorized the internment of 120,000 Nikkei in U.S. concentration camps.

1992 DAY OF REMEMBRANCE
Executive Order 9066: February 19, 1942

Sunday, February 23, 1992

2:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Buddhist Church, N.Y.C.

- Flute Jenny Wada-Ikeda
- Welcome and Update Cyril Nishimoto
- Japan and U.S. Tension Leslee Wong-Inaba
- Collage of Sanseis Kelly Nishimura/Mike Ishii

Poetry

- Remembering Non-Nikkei Sasha Hohri

Ralph Lazo

Yuri Kochiyama

- Yellow Ribbon/Friends of Nikkei Audience Participation
- Cultural Presentations Terry Watada, John Seetoo

Soh Daiko

- Candle-light Observance Mitsu Kamada

Sansei and Yonsei representing camps

- Closing Remarks Sasha Hohri
- Light Refreshments (upstairs)

Acknowledgements

Collage Contributors: Victoria Lin Sakamaki, Ryusei Shibata,
Ryota Waki, Shu Chris Niwa, Etsuko Murase,
Naoko Okada, Mayumi Hanabusa, Hiromi Suzuki,
Mamie Sawamura, Tsuya Yee, Asia Wong,
John Hayakawa Torok, Van Troi Pang, Mike Ishii,
Kelly Nishimura

Artwork: Miné Okubo

Use of Facility: Buddhist Church/Mitsu Kamada

Photo Exhibit: Corky Lee

Special Contribution: Walter and Michi Weglyn

Sponsored by the 1992 Ad Hoc Day of Remembrance Committee of N.Y.C.