Dear Asian Americans for Action -

I am happy - grateful for your Newsletter. I have not read it as yet - but your getting TOGETHER augurs well for the future - meaning control over your own lives - your own destiny. You are many - you are strong - strong with a soul - strength that only the passion to be FREE can give to a man, a woman, a child. But oh I suffer with you at the price you must pay to do battle with this horrid monster - The U.S. of America.

I am sorry I cannot give you material support. I am 82 and on very limited budget.
But oh you have my heart, my love, my hope that some day you shall have Liberty and Peace and the Good Life - the Simple Life - free from The madness of possessing Things - which will be the ruin of my own Country. (Of course it requires nothing less than World EMPIRE to salvate The glut of my Country.) And ruin it shall be - Read Emerson's "Compensation".

Good-bye, dear People, how thrilled, how inspired, how strength-ed you must be with Vietnam - and how agonized with their awful sufferings.

May I drop in to see you some day - Till then, goodbye and all my love

Theodore & Jane Upshere
