

NOV. 13-14

WASHINGTON D.C.

UCLA

Asian American Studies Center

CONFERENCE U.S. Imperialism and the Pacific Rim

Speakers / Panels / Workshops

Thursday November 13 - 7:30 P.M.

Friday November 14 - ALL DAY

Douglas Memorial Church
11th and H Streets, N.E.
Washington, D.C.

Sponsored by Pacific Rim Coalition:
Asian Americans for Action
Committee of Returned Volunteers
Leviathan
New University Conference
November Action Coalition
Pacific Studies Center

CRV/Pacific Rim Coalition
Box 380, NYC, 10003, 212-228-4470

Thursday, November 13:

7:30 P.M. - Analysis:

Franz Schurmann - "Imperialism
in the Pacific"

Carol Brightman - "Our People's War"

Friday, November 14:

9:30 A.M. - Films

10:30 A.M. - Workshops on:

Thailand

Vietnam

Laos

Japan

Korea

Micronesia

Malaysia and

Singapore

Philippines

Indonesia

Latin America and the Pacific Rim

International Monetary System

Foreign Aid

Japanese Student

Movement

Revolutionary War -
Theory & Practice

Counter-insurgency

12:30 - 1:30 P.M. - Lunch

1:30 - 3:30 P.M. - Workshops
(Same as above)

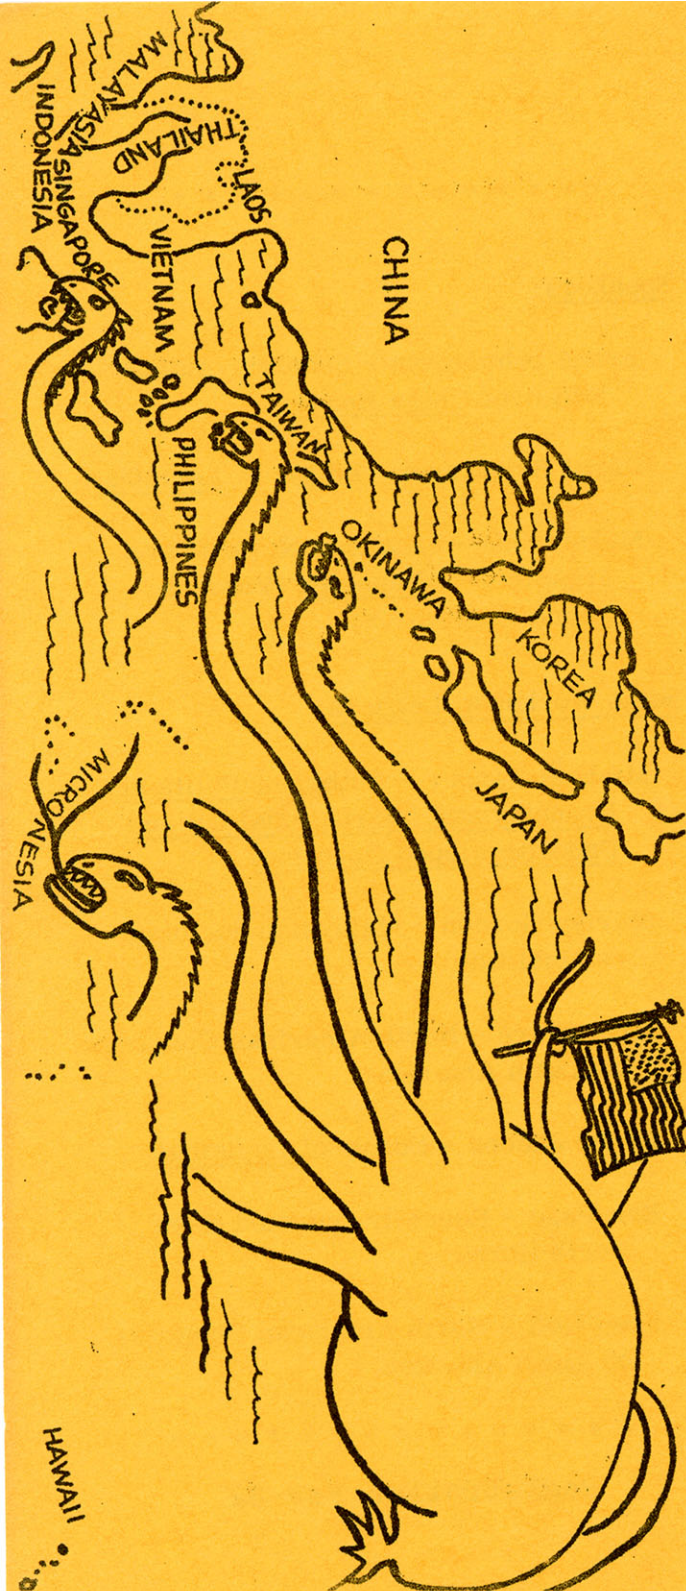

4:00 P.M. - Analysis:

Makoto Oda - "Okinawa and the Security Treaty Struggle"

7:30 P.M. - Movement Panel:
Building the Struggle at Home

Wednesday, November 19:

Demonstration when Premier
Sato comes to Washington

The attempt to convert the Pacific into an 'American lake' is no haphazard process. The objectives of this conference are to gain an understanding of the so-called Pacific Rim Strategy of the U.S. and help fashion the anti-imperialist movement in America which, together with the revolutionary forces of the Third World, will defeat it.

+++++

NOVEMBER 19

* * * * *

Fred Goff - North American Congress
on Latin America

* * * * *

Registration Fee-$2